FIVE BIG PAPER MAKERS ON TRIAL IN TRUST CASE

Powerful-Legal Battery on Charge of Association's Interest in Federal Court.

Five of the seven members of the New York Paper Manufacturers' Association, collected an audience of spectators to watch the same great paper industry in session at the Emerson anti-trust law suit to trial before Federal Judge Mayer today. The jury was empaneled at 1:15 o'clock and judgment was taken at 8:30.

The five defendants present were George H. Mead, chairman of the executive committee of the association, president of several large paper mills; Philip T. Dodge, president of the International Paper Company; George C. Jones, member of the executive committee; Gordon H. P. Gould, member of executive committee, and Francis J. Parsons, deceased, described as having helped to create the association. Edward W. Hawley, member of the executive committee, and Alexander Smith of Chicago were the two absentees. Hawley is ill and Smith was said to be doing his Crota work in France.

John B. Stanfield, former United States Senator O'Hearn, George Burton, son of Justice John Quinn, John Burton, son of George, former U. S. Attorney Henry A. Wise and a squad of assistants represented the defendants. Herbert C. Sturz of No. 1 Wall street, succeeding Bainbridge Colby, who is now abroad on a war mission, and Mark Hanna represented the government.

This, for the man who's had trouble getting sleeves the right length

Not only neckbands to size 20, but sleeve lengths to fit all the varying sizes of arms.

A great stock.
Look around and see who's showing the variety that we are, specially at $1.50.

The line of silks at $5 is one to be proud of, too.

Wife Wins Decree on Testimony of Brother Concerning Raid.

Walter W. Miller, famous jockey of two continents, did not appear to contest the suit for absolute divorce, heard to-day, by Mrs. Claire L. Miller, before Justice Newburger. In granting the decree, Justice Newburger also awarded Mrs. Miller the custody of her twenty-two-month-old daughter, Leanne. "No plea for alimony was made.

Mrs. Miller before her marriage was Miss Claire Lowenstein, daughter of the widow of a millionaire broker. The divorce was granted chiefly on the testimony of the plaintiff's brother, Louis Lowenstein, who described a raid on Miller's suite at a hotel on Sept. 13.
